ORDER :

In the G.O. 1st to 3rd read above, the Government have issued orders for deployment of Adarsha Rythu as a facilitator at village level for agricultural development. In the letter 4th read above, the Commissioner & Director of Agriculture, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has reported that 49161 Adarsha Rythus were deployed against the target of 50,000 in two phases during the year 2007 & 2008 in the combined State to strengthen the Extension services at village level. Out of which, 29,439 Adarsha Rythus were deployed in Andhra Pradesh. He has further stated that the Adarsha Rythus who were deployed have failed to generate awareness among the farmers in extension work and they have failed to achieve the desired results as they are not well qualified. In addition, certain allegations were also raised against Adarsha Rythus from the farming community from time to time on issues like preparation of enumeration lists, disbursement of input subsidy and allotment of implements under NFSM, Farm Mechanization etc., and reported that the desired results have not been achieved.

2). The Government, after taking into consideration the difficulties faced by the farming community in the state due to failure of the Adarsha Rythus in providing the required Agriculture Extension, have decided to abolish the Adarsha Rythus and to replace it with well organized agriculture extension network with qualified Multi Purpose Extension System (MPEO).

3). The Government have examined the matter in detail and hereby order to remove the Adarsha Rythus and to replace them with well organized agriculture extension network with the following objectives:-

- a) to facilitate the effective extension reach to the farming community
- b) to address the immediate needs of the farmers during the season in case of unfavorable seasonal conditions
- c) to sensitize the farmers on measures to be taken up to enhance the productivity levels.

4). The orders in this regard are being issued separately.

5). The Commissioner and Director of Agriculture, A.P., Hyderabad shall take further action accordingly.

(BY ORDER AND IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR OF ANDHRA PRADESH)
